

6301990001,Iran,630,1990,MENA,1,1,16,2,1990,16,2,1990,1,Tehran,,50,anti government,"political behavior, process",,,,shootings,,,,,,,"1 the washington post, february 18, 1990, sunday, final edition, first section page a46 2 iran protests over football described as anti regime by opposition radio. bbc summary of world broadcasts, february 19, 1990 ,conflicting accounts of this tens of people wounded, at least 30 arrested"

6301991001,Iran,630,1991,MENA,1,1,7,7,1991,12,7,1991,1,Tehran,,100000,"bus riders, poor","price increases, tax policy",,,,crowd dispersal,,,,,,,"1 the independent london , july 11, 1991, thursday, foreign news page page 16 2 the independent london , july 12, 1991, friday, foreign news page page 11 ,hundreds of iranians waiting for buses in three main squares of tehran blocked traffic for about an hour last weekend, shouting slogans demanding a cut in fares and other prices. it was the first popular protest against rising prices to be widely reported in the iranian media since president akbar hashemi rafsanjani took office two years ago."

6301991002,Iran,630,1991,MENA,1,2,26,7,1991,26,7,1991,0,Isfahan,,100,cultural liberals ?,social restrictions,,,,arrests,,,,,,,"the new york times, july 30, 1991, tuesday, late edition final, section a page 8 column 4 ,hundreds of demonstrators in the city of isfahan who were trying to prevent the arrest of women charged with wearing improper dress clashed with the islamic security force known as the komiteh on friday, the newspaper salaam reported today. the hard line daily, which called for an unfailing combat against social decadence, said 300 people had been arrested. violations of islamic dress requirements for women are punishable by imprisonment and up to 70 lashes of the whip. they consist of showing one s hair or wearing sheer stockings or makeup."

6301991003,Iran,630,1991,MENA,1,3,29,7,1991,29,7,1991,1,Tehran,,50,slum dwellers,land farm issue,,,shootings,,,,,,,"1 the washington post, iranian rioting, from news services, august 1, 1991, thursday, final edition, first section page a30 2 slum dwellers, police clash in tehran. the globe and mail canada , july 31, 1991 ",squatter evictions

6301992001,Iran,630,1992,MENA,1,1,21,5,1992,21,5,1992,1,Arak,,2000,slum dwellers,land farm issue,,,shootings,,,,,,the new york times, may 28, 1992, thursday, late edition final, section a" page 13 column 1 ",squatter evictions

6301992002,Iran,630,1992,MENA,1,2,30,5,1992,30,5,1992,1,Meshed,,1000,slum dwellers,land farm issue,,,ignore,,,,,,the new york times, june 1, 1992, monday, late edition final, section a" page 10 column 4 ",squatter evictions

6301992003,Iran,630,1992,MENA,1,3,21,9,1992,21,9,1992,1,Tehran,,50,slum dwellers, political opponents""land farm issue,,,arrests,,,,,,""the new york times, september 23, 1992, wednesday, late edition final, section a" page 12 column 4 ",squatter evictions

6301993000,Iran,630,1993,MENA,0,0,,,,,,0,,,,,,

6301994001,Iran,630,1994,MENA,1,1,1,2,1994,1,2,1994,1,Zahedan,,50,sunni muslims,political behavior, process""arrests,,,,,,""1 afp cites iranian papers on incident in zahedan, mko, alleged saudi role. bbc summary of world broadcasts, february 4, 1994" 2 the independent london , february 4, 1994, friday, international news page page 12
",crowds scores of people

6301994002,Iran,630,1994,MENA,1,2,3,8,1994,4,8,1994,1,Qazvin,,10000,local hizbullahis,political behavior, process""beatings,,,,,,""the washington post, iran s army refused to intervene in city s anti government riot" military s reluctance to attack citizens seen as strong signal to rulers, nora boustany, washington post foreign service, october 7, 1994 ,on aug. 3, iran s parliament shattered promises by president ali akbar hashemi rafsanjani and interior minister ali mohammed besharati to separate this persian speaking region, with its 1.4 million people, from the less populous turkish speaking province of zanzan. the motion to form a new province was defeated, 105 votes to 103. as the word spread, an angry mob began smashing windows and overturning cars as it headed toward the arcaded bazaar. the revolt was led by local hizbullahis, the bearded supporters of the tehran government here. they have given our rights to zanzanis, they bellowed through the streets, ordering shops to close. the hizbullahis were headed for the bazaar, and when they came back there were 5,000, said a pharmacist who watched from his shop as mayhem engulfed the city center. for 24 hours, orders to subdue the uprising were issued to nearby army garrisons, but they went unheeded. the next day, members of parliament who came to appease the residents were beaten and chased out of town, and the riotous crowds swelled in numbers and rage."

6301994003,Iran,630,1994,MENA,1,3,15,10,1994,15,10,1994,0,Tehran,,800,students,"price increases, tax policy" ,,,accomodation,,,,,,the new york times, november 20, 1994, sunday, late edition final, section 1 page 18 column 5 ",unclear on exact date of march

6301994004,Iran,630,1994,MENA,1,4,19,11,1994,19,11,1994,0,Tehran,,500,anti capitalists, students""price increases, tax policy""ignore,,,,,,""the new york times, november 20, 1994, sunday, late edition final, section 1" page 18 column 5 ,at a demonstration this month commemorating the takeover of the united states embassy during the iran hostage crisis in 1979, nearly 500 students called for the execution of capitalists and denounced lawmakers for favoring wealthy merchants over low income groups."

6301995001,Iran,630,1995,MENA,1,1,4,4,1995,4,4,1995,1,Islamshahr,,100,"youths, economic discontents","price increases, tax policy",,,,shootings,,,,,"1 the washington post, police disperse rioters in suburb of tehran, april 05, 1995, wednesday, final edition, a section
pg. a26 2 the washington post, iranian town quiet after riots, april 06, 1995, thursday, final edition, a section pg ,a mass demonstration against government policies in a tehran suburb turned violent yesterday as protesters set fire to several public buildings, government vehicles and a gasoline station, witnesses said... witnesses said the protest began peacefully in the suburb of islamshahr as residents of the surrounding region gathered to demand better fresh water supplies. it quickly turned into a wider protest against a host of economic hardships, however, particularly the government s doubling of fuel prices last month."

6301996000,Iran,630,1996,MENA,0,0,,,,,,0,,,,,,,,,,,,,

6301997000,Iran,630,1997,MENA,0,0,,,,,,0,,,,,,,,,,,,, 6301998001,Iran,630,1998,MENA,1,1,14,4,1998,14,4,1998,0,Tehran,,4000,students,police brutality,,,crowd dispersal,,,,,"1 the washington post, factions scuffle over jailed tehran mayor, april 15, 1998, wednesday, final edition, a section pg. a13 2 the new york times, april 15, 1998, wednesday, late edition final, section a page 3 column 1

".gov accomodated demands the following day

6301998002,Iran,630,1998,MENA,1,2,23,5,1998,23,5,1998,0,Tehran,,10000,students, moderates""removal of politician,,,ignore,,,,,""the new york times, may 24, 1998, sunday, late edition final, section 1" page 10 column 3 ,mostly in support of recent reforms, but also included demands for the resignation of judiciary chief?"

6301998003,Iran,630,1998,MENA,1,3,31,7,1998,31,7,1998,0,Qum,,4000,conservatives,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,"the new york times, august 2, 1998, sunday, late edition final, section 1 page 15 column 1 ",in opposition to too much press freedom?
6301998004,Iran,630,1998,MENA,1,4,16,10,1998,16,10,1998,0,Tehran,,75,conservatives hardliners,political behavior, process"" ,,,,ignore,,,,,""the new york times, october 21, 1998, wednesday, late edition final, section a" page 16 column 6 ,a month after iran s government dissociated itself from death threats to the british author salman rushdie, the decision is still exposing fissures among iran s rival centers of power... and last friday, in the latest of several anti government demonstrations, at least 75 members of the hard line ansar e hezbollah gathered in teheran to issue new threats against mr. rushdie, unveiling a three story mural dedicated to the memory of a man they said tried to kill the author nine years ago. we don t obey the foreign minister, chanted a member of the group, which has long been linked to violence and is believed to have the backing of high level clerics in the government. remember our faces, salman rushdie. we will kill you."

6301998005,Iran,630,1998,MENA,1,5,31,12,1998,31,12,1998,1,Tehran,,2000,pro democracy,"political behavior, process",,,,arrests,,,,,"the new york times, january 1, 1999, friday, late edition final, section a page 6 column 4 ,iranians protesting the slaying of a dissident and his wife clashed with hard line militants here today. riot policemen broke up the confrontation outside the fakhr mosque in central teheran, arresting a number of protesters. about 2,000 protesters had attended a two hour service in the mosque to mark the 40th day after the death of the dissident, dariush foruhar, and his wife, who were found stabbed to death in their home here on nov. 22... emerging from the mosque, the mourners began chanting pro democracy slogans like freedom, security that is the slogan of the nation! and death to autocracy! despite the presence of 200 riot policemen, who had cordoned off the mosque, dozens of militants charged the protesters and fistfights broke out."

6301999001,Iran,630,1999,MENA,1,1,8,7,1999,8,7,1999,0,Tehran,,200,students,social restrictions,,,,ignore,,,,,,,"christian science monitor boston, ma , july 12, 1999, monday, world pg. 1 struggle for iran s reins of power christian science monitor boston, ma , july 12, 1999, monday, world pg. 1, 1181 words, scott peterson, staff writer of the christian science monitor",the battle for control of iran s future is now effectively being fought by university students. yesterday students marched in tehran for the fourth day of sometimes violent protests. students have played a leading role in iran s political history. and not since the islamic revolution that brought ayatollah ruhollah khomeini to power in 1979 and prompted the takeover of the us embassy has iran seen this scale of public discontent.

6301999002,Iran,630,1999,MENA,1,2,9,7,1999,9,7,1999,1,Tehran,,100,students,social restrictions,,,,beatings,,,,,,,"the new york times, july 10, 1999, saturday, late edition final, section a page 3 column 1 ,arrested 00s, beat dozens"

6301999003,Iran,630,1999,MENA,1,3,10,7,1999,13,7,1999,1,Tehran,,10000,students,"political behavior, process",,,,beatings,,,,,,,"1 the new york times, july 11, 1999, sunday, late edition final, section 1 page 12 column 1 2 the washington post, washington post foreign service, july 14, 1999, wednesday, final edition, a section pg. a01 ,reports of protests spreading to other universities too, but no specifics"

6301999004,Iran,630,1999,MENA,1,4,5,12,1999,5,12,1999,0,Tehran,,800,students,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,,,"the new york times, december 6, 1999, monday, late edition final, section a page 12 column 1 ,the five year prison sentence imposed nine days ago on one of iran s most popular reform politicians has deepened the divide between an increasingly impatient democratic reform movement and conservative muslim clerics determined to uphold an autocratic version of islamic rule. student protests against the sentence continued yesterday, and abdullah nouri, the high ranking cleric who was jailed on heresy charges, sent a message from prison that he was holding firm to his refusal to appeal, as a matter of principle. at the same time, word came from the clerical court that condemned him that it was considering new prosecutions of mr. nouri s associates on a reformist tehran newspaper... mr. nouri s imprisonment has prompted several demonstrations, the most daring of them a protest yesterday at the allameh tabatabai university in tehran, where 800 students rallied for two hours in support of the jailed cleric."

6302000001,Iran,630,2000,MENA,1,1,6,4,2000,6,4,2000,1,Khalkhal,,50,pro reformers,"political behavior, process",,,,arrests,,,,,,,"the new york times, april 9, 2000, sunday, late edition final, section 1 page 13 column 1 ,unclear on number, 40 arrested"

6302000002,Iran,630,2000,MENA,1,2,7,4,2000,7,4,2000,0,Damavand,,500,pro reformers,"political behavior, process",,,,arrests,,,,,,,"the new york times, april 9, 2000, sunday, late edition final, section 1 page 13 column 1 ,the police have arrested dozens of people after two days of protests against decisions by a conservative government council to overturn the victories of several reformers in february s parliamentary elections, state television reported today. forty people were jailed in the northwestern city of khalkhal after angry residents went on a rampage late thursday, ransacking government offices and setting fire to vehicles, the television report said. the protest began after the conservative led council of guardians overturned results from the feb. 18 election, taking a victory away from a reform candidate and handing it to his conservative rival."

6302000003,Iran,630,2000,MENA,1,3,25,4,2000,25,4,2000,0,Tehran,,100,students,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,,,"the new york times, april 26, 2000, wednesday, late edition final, section a page 12 column 1 2 teheran students demonstrate against press crackdown. deutsche presse agentur, april 25, 2000, tuesday ,with the reformers they supported under siege by conservative judges and clerics, students at two tehran universities held peaceful demonstrations today to denounce the widening crackdown on the nation s independent press. as the students protested, a judge in the capital closed another liberal newspaper the 13th to fall silent on orders from hard line judges in just two days. and another court issued an arrest warrant for a popular moderate cleric who was accused of insulting islam because he attended a recent conference in berlin on democracy."

6302000004,Iran,630,2000,MENA,1,4,27,4,2000,27,4,2000,1,Tehran,,200,students,"political behavior, process",,,,arrests,,,,,,,"press curbs spark violence in iran. the times london , april 29, 2000 ,students in iran burnt tyres and threw stones in disturbances after a hardline onslaught that has closed 16 reformist newspapers this week. it was an ominous sign of the stiff challenge facing president khatami as he struggles to rein in his angry supporters in the face of intense provocation by an old guard determined to deny them more personal and political freedom. the protests late on thursday night came hours after the banning of the two biggest reformist newspapers, one of which is published by the president s brother."

6302000005,Iran,630,2000,MENA,1,5,8,7,2000,8,7,2000,1,Tehran,,1000,students,"political behavior, process",,,,crowd dispersal,,,,,,,"the new york times, july 9, 2000, sunday, late edition final, section 1 page 6 column 6 ,students fought street battles with riot policemen and hard line vigilantes today, snapping a truce that had lasted since the violent suppression of a pro democracy rally one year ago. the policemen moved against thousands of demonstrators in tehran during a rally marking the first anniversary of an assault by security forces on a campus demonstration that left at least one student dead. that incident touched off some of the worst unrest in iran since the aftermath of the islamic revolution. today policemen fired tear gas in an attempt to break up the crowd in revolution square. some of the demonstrators responded with a volley of stones and other debris."

6302001001,Iran,630,2001,MENA,1,1,9,2,2001,9,2,2001,0,Tehran,,300,opposition groups,"political behavior, process",,,,arrests,,,,,,,"1 the new york times, february 11, 2001 sunday, section 1 column 3 foreign desk pg. 14 2 iran: people demonstrate in tehran against lack of freedom of expression . bbc monitoring middle east political supplied by bbc worldwide monito ,dozens were also arrested during an anti government demonstration in the capital on friday, called by exiled opposition groups to protest social and political repression."

6302001002,Iran,630,2001,MENA,1,2,10,2,2001,10,2,2001,0,Tehran,,100,students,"political behavior, process",,,,beatings,,,,,"the new york times, february 11, 2001 sunday, section 1 column 3 foreign desk pg. 14 ,besides the ceremony, tehran has also seen two days of protests against the crackdown on freedom of speech. basij islamic militiamen, part of the security forces, used clubs to beat up some 100 pro democracy students holding a rally at a park in central tehran today. about 50 people were arrested."

6302001003,Iran,630,2001,MENA,1,3,6,7,2001,6,7,2001,1,Isfahan,,50,"political behavior, process",,,,arrests,,,,,"1 the new york times, july 6, 2001 friday, section a column 1 foreign desk pg. 6 2 iran rations water in 30 cities. bbc monitoring middle east economic supplied by bbc worldwide monitoring, july 11, 2001 ,water shortages 44 arrested, crowds"

6302001004,Iran,630,2001,MENA,1,4,21,10,2001,22,10,2001,1,Tehran,,1000,youths,"political behavior, process",,,,arrests,,,,,"the new york times, october 25, 2001 thursday, section a column 1 foreign desk pg. 15 ,post soccer match, but turned political"

6302001005,Iran,630,2001,MENA,1,5,25,10,2001,25,10,2001,1,Tehran,,50,youths,"political behavior, process",,,,crowd dispersal,,,,,"the new york times, october 26, 2001 friday, section a column 1 foreign desk pg. 7 ,post soccer match, but turned political flood of demonstrators"

6302002001,Iran,630,2002,MENA,1,1,22,1,2002,22,1,2002,0,"Kermanshah, Boyer Ahmad",,1000,teachers,labor wage dispute,,,,accomodation,,,,,,,"the new york times, january 23, 2002 wednesday, section a column 1 foreign desk pg. 4 ",promised to consider accomodating?

6302002002,Iran,630,2002,MENA,1,2,22,1,2002,22,1,2002,0,Tehran,,5000,teachers,labor wage dispute,,,,accomodation,,,,,,,"the new york times, january 23, 2002 wednesday, section a" column 1 foreign desk pg. 4 ",promised to consider accomodating?

6302002003,Iran,630,2002,MENA,1,3,9,7,2002,9,7,2002,0,Tehran,,3000,students, pro democracy""""political behavior, process""""beatings,,,,,,,""the new york times, july 10, 2002 wednesday, section a" column 1 foreign desk pg. 3 ,in a powerful expression of popular frustration with repressive government, protesters clashed with the police at two sites today, marking the third anniversary of a violent crackdown on student protests at tehran university. first at the university and later in the affluent north tehran neighborhood of mother square, police officers and vigilante volunteers wielding riot sticks lashed out at demonstrators, who had gathered in the thousands in defiance of a ban on protests. the interior ministry had cited concerns about violence in refusing to issue students a protest permit. and even though the main student organization decided on sunday not to go ahead with the demonstration, nearly 3,000 people crowded into the streets anyway, spurred by a monthlong drive on opposition radio and satellite television."

6302002004,Iran,630,2002,MENA,1,4,9,11,2002,13,11,2002,0,Tehran,,1000,students,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,,,"1 the washington post, november 10, 2002 sunday, a section pg. a31 2 the washington post, november 13, 2002 wednesday, a section pg. a18 ",sparked by death sentence ruling for liberal professor

6302002005,Iran,630,2002,MENA,1,5,18,11,2002,19,11,2002,0,Tehran,,1000,students,political behavior, process""""ignore,,,,,,,""1 the new york times, november 19, 2002 tuesday, section a" column 1 foreign desk pg. 10 2 the new york times, november 20, 2002 wednesday, section a column 1 foreign desk pg. 3 ",continuation of before

6302002006,Iran,630,2002,MENA,1,6,19,11,2002,19,11,2002,0,Tehran,,2000,hardliners,political behavior, process""""ignore,,,,,,,""the new york times, november 20, 2002 wednesday, section a" column 1 foreign desk pg. 3 ",counter protest against students

6302002007,Iran,630,2002,MENA,1,7,7,12,2002,7,12,2002,0,Tehran,,1000,students, pro reform""""political behavior, process""""arrests,,,,,,,""the new york times, december 8, 2002 sunday, section 1" column 4 foreign desk pg. 22 ,university students protested again today, and the government cracked down with scores of arrests, witnesses said.

thousands of people marched outside the tehran university campus, and security forces used tear gas to disperse them, the witnesses said. it was the biggest day of demonstrations in two weeks of almost daily protests set off by the death sentence issued for a reformist lecturer, hashem aghajari. around 60 to 70 people have been arrested, most of whom are being questioned, ali taala, general director of security and political affairs at the governor s office in tehran, told the students news agency isna, according to reuters. others put the number of arrested in the hundreds."

6302002008,Iran,630,2002,MENA,1,8,9,12,2002,9,12,2002,0,Tehran,,2000,students,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,,,"iran students protest grows despite militia. the times london , december 10, 2002, tuesday, overseas news 16 ,the scene outside tehran s amirkabir university yesterday would have been unthinkable just a few weeks ago, but has now become a daily event. several hundred students from other universities massed outside the iron gates until they gave way under the pressure. shouting in triumph, the students surged towards a hall where the latest in a series of pro reform rallies was taking place. they were hotly pursued by 300 members of the basij, volunteer islamic militia groups, whose purpose is to disrupt any form of public demonstration, sometimes violently. some 2,000 students had packed into the hall. many held aloft pictures of hashem aghajari, the liberal academic condemned to death for questioning the rule of iran s clerics last month. others held posters of dariush and parvaneh forouhar, opposition politicians who were murdered by members of the intelligence services in 1998."

6302003001,Iran,630,2003,MENA,1,1,10,6,2003,16,6,2003,1,Tehran,,1000,"students, pro reform","political behavior, process",,,,arrests,,,,,,,"1 the new york times, june 13, 2003 friday, section a column 3 foreign desk pg. 8 2 the times london , june 16, 2003, monday, overseas news 14 ",violent skirmishes with hardline vigilantes
6302003002,Iran,630,2003,MENA,1,2,9,7,2003,9,7,2003,1,Tehran,,1000,students, pro democracy"","political behavior, process"",,,crowd dispersal,,,,,,,"tehran in turmoil as students protest. the times london , july 10, 2003, thursday, overseas news" 15 ,thousands of prodemocracy demonstrators converged last night on tehran university and fought street battles with police and islamic vigilantes on the fourth anniversary of campus protests that were brutally suppressed. police clashed with hardline islamic vigilantes, who tried to approach the area where the demonstrators had formed a long traffic jam in their cars. they also fired teargas at the protesters."

6302004000,Iran,630,2004,MENA,0,0,,,,,0,,,,,,,,,,,,,

6302005001,Iran,630,2005,MENA,1,1,12,6,2005,12,6,2005,0,Tehran,,100,women,social restrictions,,,,beatings,,,,,"the new york times, june 13, 2005 monday, section a column 3 foreign desk pg. 8 ",reports of beatings unverified

6302005002,Iran,630,2005,MENA,1,2,16,6,2005,16,6,2005,0,Tehran,,300,pro reform,political behavior, process"" ,,,beatings,,,,,"1 the new york times, june 17, 2005 friday correction appended, section a" column 1 foreign desk pg. 6 2 iranian police arrest protesting opponents of elections bbc monitoring middle east political supplied by bbc worldwide monitoring, ,protesters were beaten by baton wielding riot police on thursday for chanting antigovernment slogans while seated in a public park. a witness said the protesters had been chanting about freedom when the riot police roared up on motorcycles and on foot and charged the crowd. the witness was a security guard at a shop across the street who looked out the door to see what was happening and was also beaten. the police came and beat people indiscriminately, said the man, who did not give his name for fear of reprisal."

6302005003,Iran,630,2005,MENA,1,3,3,8,2005,3,8,2005,1,Saqquez,,100,kurds,police brutality,,,killings,,,,,"1 the new york times, august 14, 2005 sunday, section 1 column 1 foreign desk pg. 12 2 iran deploys troops to crack down on unrest in kurdish areas tv. bbc monitoring middle east political supplied by bbc worldwide monitoring, augus ,sporadic unrest ongoing from early july to mid august, but few details at least 00s involved"

6302006001,Iran,630,2006,MENA,1,1,24,5,2006,24,5,2006,1,Tehran,,2000,students,social restrictions,,,arrests,,,,,"1 the new york times, may 26, 2006 friday, section a column 5 foreign desk pg. 10 2 iranian students clash with police. national post f k a the financial post canada , may 25, 2006 thursday, world world report pg. a13

,students clashed with the police in tehran at protests over restrictions since president mahmoud ahmadinejad was elected last june. students threw stones and set fires outside a tehran university dormitory, the news agency isna reported. paramilitary forces entered the dormitory around 5 a.m. and detained some protesters. nearly 40 students were injured and at least 7 were arrested, students said. the daily etemad melli reported that 40 police officers were injured."

6302006002,Iran,630,2006,MENA,1,2,25,5,2006,25,5,2006,1,Naghadeh,,70,azeris,social restrictions,,,,,crowd dispersal,,,,,,,"the new york times, may 29, 2006 monday, section a column 5 foreign desk pg. 9 ,other sporadic episodes of protest, but few details"

6302006003,Iran,630,2006,MENA,1,3,28,5,2006,28,5,2006,0,Tehran,,2000,azeris,social restrictions,,,,,crowd dispersal,,,,,,,"the new york times, may 29, 2006 monday, section a column 5 foreign desk pg. 9 ,four people were killed and 70 were injured in riots last week in the azeri region northwest of here, according to local news reports, as tensions spread after the publication of a cartoon that has outraged iran s azeri population. the deadly protests occurred last thursday in the city of naghadeh, and followed other demonstrations in ardabil. on sunday, about 2,000 azeris demonstrated in tehran outside parliament and were dispersed by the police, the reports said. in a show of defiance that appears to have unnerved the government, demonstrators chanted in turkish azeri, as the language is known here for its close relation to turkish, and demanded that it be taught in schools. among the group s other demands, listed on iranian news web sites, were the release of jailed protesters and the right to start independent television channels that would broadcast in turkish azeri."

6302006004,Iran,630,2006,MENA,1,4,10,12,2006,10,12,2006,0,Tehran,,1000,students,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,,,"the new york times, december 12, 2006 tuesday, section a column 1 foreign desk pg. 3 ,about 1,000 students at amirkabir also protested sunday to denounce the increasing pressure on the reformist group at the university, newspapers reported monday."

6302006005,Iran,630,2006,MENA,1,5,11,12,2006,11,12,2006,1,Tehran,,50,students,removal of politician,,,,ignore,,,,,,,"the new york times, december 12, 2006 tuesday, section a column 1 foreign desk pg. 3 ",major public protest
6302007001,Iran,630,2007,MENA,1,1,4,3,2007,4,3,2007,0,Tehran,,50,women,social restrictions,,,,arrests,,,,,,1 the new york times, march 6, 2007 tuesday, section a" column 1 foreign desk pg. 11 2 iran: police break up women s rally in tehran arresting at least 36 activists . bbc monitoring middle east political supplied by bbc worldwide moni ,unclear on number, 33 arrested"

6302007002,Iran,630,2007,MENA,1,2,8,3,2007,8,3,2007,0,Tehran,,4000,teachers,labor wage dispute,,,,ignore,,,,,,,"iranian police attack activists celebrating women s day. the irish times, march 9, 2007 friday, world other world stories pg. 14 ", 6302007003,Iran,630,2007,MENA,1,3,8,3,2007,8,3,2007,0,Tehran,,700,women,social restrictions,,,,beatings,,,,,,,"iranian police attack activists celebrating women s day. the irish times, march 9, 2007 friday, world" other world stories pg. 14 ,iranian police clashed with scores of women s rights activists who gathered in front of parliament yesterday to celebrate international women s day. police attacked a gathering of some 700 women s rights activists and hit them with batons, an activist said. no one was seriously hurt. security forces arrested 33 women s rights activists on sunday outside a tehran court, where five other women detained in june had gone on trial. most of them were released on wednesday. all of them have gradually been released. but three of them are still in jail, lawyer nasrin sotoudeh said. sunday s protesters were demanding a fair trial for the five women, charged for acting against national security after taking part in an unauthorised rally to demand equal legal rights for women in the islamic republic."

6302007004,Iran,630,2007,MENA,1,4,27,6,2007,28,6,2007,1,Tehran,,50,"motorists, youths","price increases, tax policy" ,,,,arrests,,,,,,,"1 the times london , june 28, 2007, thursday, overseas news pg. 53 2 the new york times, june 29, 2007 friday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 3 ",sporadic; dozens arrested 6302007005,Iran,630,2007,MENA,1,5,8,10,2007,8,10,2007,1,Tehran,,50,students,political behavior, process"" ,,,,crowd dispersal,,,,,,,""the times london , october 9, 2007, tuesday, overseas news" pg. 41 ,unclear on number, scores"

6302007006,Iran,630,2007,MENA,1,6,22,10,2007,22,10,2007,0,Tehran,,100,students,"political behavior, process" ,,,,ignore,,,,,"the new york times, october 23, 2007 tuesday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 7 ",protesting jailings
6302007007,Iran,630,2007,MENA,1,7,9,12,2007,9,12,2007,0,Tehran,,1500,students,political behavior, process"" ,,,,ignore,,,,,"the new york times, december 10, 2007 monday, section a" column 0 foreign desk pg. 8 ",protesting jailings
6302008001,Iran,630,2008,MENA,1,1,4,10,2008,11,10,2008,0,Isfahan, Shiraz, Tabriz, Qazvin, Mashhad, Tehran"" ,50,shopkeepers,"price increases, tax policy"" ,,,,accomodation,,,,,"1 the new york times, october 11, 2008 saturday, section a" column 0 foreign desk pg. 8 2 the washington post, october 9, 2008 thursday, a section pg. a14 ",closed shops as protest may not fit our concept
6302009001,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,1,23,2,2009,23,2,2009,1,Tehran,,50,students,political behavior, process"" ,,,,arrests,,,,,"the washington post, february 25, 2009 wednesday, a section" pg. a10 ",70 reportedly arrested
6302009002,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,2,13,6,2009,14,6,2009,1,Tehran,,1000,mousavi supporters, anti regime"" ,""political behavior, process"" ,,,,beatings,,,,,"1 the new york times, june 14, 2009 sunday, section a" column 0 foreign desk pg. 1 2 the new york times, june 15, 2009 monday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 1 ,women, young people, intellectuals, moderates election related"

6302009003,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,3,15,6,2009,15,6,2009,1,Tehran,,100000,"mousavi supporters, anti regime","political behavior, process" ,,,,shootings,,,,,"1 the times london , june 16, 2009 tuesday, news pg. 1 2 the times london , june 16, 2009 tuesday, news pg. 6,7 ",became violent after major rally 6302009004,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,4,17,6,2009,18,6,2009,0,Tehran,,100000,mousavi supporters, anti regime"" ,""political behavior, process"" ,,,,arrests,,,,,"1 the times london , june 18, 2009 thursday, news" pg. 4,5 2 the new york times, june 18, 2009 thursday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 1 3 the washington post, june 19, 2009 friday, foreign pg. a06 ,the iranian opposition dashed the regime s hopes that its protests would gradually fade away by staging another huge demonstration against electoral fraud yesterday and calling for an even bigger show of strength today as unrest spread across the country... the demonstrators defiance of bans, violent repression and official pleas for unity is driving the regime towards increasingly extreme measures to enforce president ahmadinejad s hotly disputed re election last friday. security forces have arrested dozens of prominent opposition figures in the past two days, detained hundreds of students in raids on universities and threatened legal action against deviant websites and bloggers who provoked unrest... more than 100,000 supporters of mir hossein mousavi, a former prime minister and mr ahmadinejad s chief election rival, staged a silent rally in tehran on the fifth consecutive day of protests yesterday, but it is likely to be dwarfed by today s demonstration. defying an official ban, mr mousavi has called for a day of protest and mourning for the eight protesters killed at monday s demonstration."

6302009005,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,5,20,6,2009,20,6,2009,1,Tehran,,1000,"mousavi supporters, anti regime","political behavior, process",,,,shootings,,,,,"1 the washington post, june 21, 2009 sunday, a section pg. a01 2 the new york times, june 21, 2009 sunday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 1 ",greater violence by basij pro gov paramilitary force

6302009006,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,6,22,6,2009,22,6,2009,0,Tehran,,1000,mousavi supporters, anti regime"",""political behavior, process"" ,,,,ignore,,,,,""the times london , june 25, 2009 thursday, news" pg. 30,31 ",these vocal rooftop protests are nightly and over many weeks

6302009007,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,7,24,6,2009,24,6,2009,1,Tehran,,100,mousavi supporters, anti regime"",""political behavior, process"" ,,,,beatings,,,,,""1 the new york times, june 25, 2009 thursday, section a" column 0 foreign desk pg. 1 2 the times london , june 25, 2009 thursday, business pg. 3 ,... several hundred protesters tried to gather outside the parliament building late in the afternoon. witnesses said they were met by a huge force of riot police officers and basij vigilantes, some on motorcycles and some in pickup trucks, armed with sticks and chains. witnesses said people were trapped and beaten as they tried to flee down side streets."

6302009008,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,8,28,6,2009,28,6,2009,0,Tehran,,3000,"mousavi supporters, anti regime","political behavior, process",,,,beatings,,,,,"1 the new york times, june 29, 2009 monday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 4 2 the times london , june 29, 2009 monday, news pg. 6,7 ,iran s government said sunday that it had arrested iranian employees of the british embassy, while the police in tehran beat and fired tear gas at several thousand protesters who joined a demonstration at a mosque in support of the defeated presidential candidate mir hussein mousavi."

6302009009,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,9,9,7,2009,9,7,2009,1,Tehran,,1000,"mousavi supporters, anti regime","political behavior, process",,,,beatings,,,,,,,"the new york times, july 10, 2009 friday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 4 ,thousands of iranians poured into the streets of tehran on thursday, clapping, chanting, almost mocking the authorities as they once again turned out in large numbers in defiance of the government s threat to crush their protests with violence. as tear gas canisters cracked and hissed in the middle of crowds, and baton wielding police officers chased protesters up and down sidewalks, young people, some bloodied, ran for cover, but there was an almost festive feeling on the streets of tehran, witnesses reported in e mail exchanges."

6302009010,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,10,17,7,2009,17,7,2009,0,Tehran,,1000,"mousavi supporters, anti regime","political behavior, process",,,,beatings,,,,,,,"the new york times, july 18, 2009 saturday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 1 ,as thousands of protesters chanted friday in the streets outside, a former iranian president, ali akbar hashemi rafsanjani, assailed the government s handling of the post election unrest, saying it had lost the trust of many iranians, and called for the release of hundreds of those arrested in recent weeks."

6302009011,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,11,30,7,2009,30,7,2009,1,Tehran,,1000,"mousavi supporters, anti regime","political behavior, process",,,,beatings,,,,,,,"the times london , july 31, 2009 friday, news pg. 1,4 ",sparked when large numbers turned out to mourn 40th day since neda murdered

6302009012,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,12,3,8,2009,3,8,2009,1,Tehran,,100,mousavi supporters, anti regime"" ""political behavior, process"" ,,,,beatings,,,,,,,""the washington post, august 4, 2009 tuesday, foreign" pg. a09 ",sparked by religious ceremony for ahmadinejad

6302009013,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,13,5,8,2009,5,8,2009,0,Tehran,,100,mousavi supporters, anti regime"" ""political behavior, process"" ,,,,beatings,,,,,,,""the times london , august 6, 2009 thursday, news" pg. 30 ",ahmadinejad sworn in

6302009014,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,14,18,9,2009,18,9,2009,0,Tehran, Isfahan, Tabriz, Yazd, Shiraz"" ,10000,""mousavi supporters, anti regime"" ""political behavior, process"" ,,,,arrests,,,,,,,""the new york times, september 19, 2009 saturday, section a" column 0 foreign desk pg. 1 ",during gov s anti israel rally

6302009015,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,15,28,9,2009,29,9,2009,0,Tehran,,1000,students, anti regime"" ,""political behavior, process"" ,,,,ignore,,,,,, ""the new york times, september 30, 2009 wednesday, section a" column 0 foreign desk pg. 14 ,students at one of iran s largest universities staged an antigovernment protest on tuesday, the second big demonstration at a major university in two days and a further indication that government efforts to intimidate student leaders have not been entirely successful. over 1,000 students demonstrated at sharif university in tehran on tuesday morning to protest a visit by the minister of science and higher education, kamran daneshjoo, a student web site, advarnews, reported. protesters carried green balloons and ribbons, a symbol of the protest movement since the disputed june 12 presidential election, and banners that read the university is still alive, according to the web site."

6302009016,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,16,4,11,2009,4,11,2009,0,Tehran,,10000,anti regime,"political behavior, process" ,,,,beatings,,,,,, "the new york times, november 5, 2009 thursday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 8 ",during gov s anti u.s. rally 6302009017,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,17,7,12,2009,8,12,2009,1,Tehran, Mashhad, Isfahan, Tabriz"" ,,1000,""students, anti regime"" ,""political behavior, process"" ,,,,beatings,,,,,, ""the new york times, december 8, 2009 tuesday, section a" column 0 foreign desk pg. 6
2 the new york times, december 9, 2009 wednesday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 6 ,thousands of people rallied against the government on monday at universities across iran, defying a wide ranging effort to suppress the protests and bringing a new ferocity to the opposition movement s confrontation with the state. the protests, taking place on national student day, set off battles in and around campuses, witnesses said. protesters hurled rocks and set fires amid clouds of tear gas, while a vast deployment of police officers and plainclothes basij militia members used chains, truncheons and stun guns to beat back chanting protesters. there were reports of dozens of arrests and injuries. many witnesses said the day s confrontations were the most violent since the rallies after last june s disputed presidential election."

6302009018,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,18,21,12,2009,21,12,2009,0,Qum,,10000,anti regime,"political behavior, process" ,,,,ignore,,,,,, "the new york times, december 22, 2009 tuesday correction appended, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 1
",supporters of reformist cleric montazeri
6302009019,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,19,23,12,2009,23,12,2009,0,Isfahan,,1000,anti regime,political behavior, process"" ,,,,beatings,,,,,, ""the times london , december 24, 2009 thursday, news" pg. 27 ",supporters of reformist cleric montazeri
6302009020,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,20,26,12,2009,26,12,2009,1,Tehran,,1000,anti regime,political behavior, process"" ,,,,beatings,,,,,, ""the new york times, december 27, 2009

sunday, section a" column 0 foreign desk pg. 6 ,police officers and militia forces clashed with demonstrators in central tehran all day saturday and then again in northern tehran in the evening, where the government forces shut down a speech by former president mohammad khatami, a reformist leader. the demonstrators, who defied an official ban and turned a shiite ceremony into a protest, underlined the government s inability to suppress the opposition despite the use of violence. protests have continued since a disputed presidential election in june, and a large one is anticipated on sunday, the culmination of the shiite holiday of ashura. witnesses and an opposition web site said the police and basij militiamen beat and arrested protesters in central tehran. the police fired tear gas at protesters in three central squares imam hussein, enghelab and ferdowsi the opposition web site jaras reported. the militia forces attacked protesters with batons and chains, the web site said."

6302009021,Iran,630,2009,MENA,1,21,27,12,2009,27,12,2009,1,Tehran,,10000,anti regime,"political behavior, process",,,,killings,,,,,,,"1 the new york times, december 28, 2009 monday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 1 2 the washington post, december 28, 2009 monday, a section pg. a01 ,police officers in iran opened fire into crowds of protesters on sunday, killing at least 10 people, witnesses and opposition web sites said, in a day of chaotic street battles that threatened to deepen the country s civil unrest. the protests, during the holiday commemorating the death of imam hussein, shiite islam s holiest martyr, were the bloodiest and among the largest since the uprisings that followed the disputed presidential election last june, witnesses said. hundreds of people were reported wounded in cities across the country, and the tehran police said they had made 300 arrests... in tehran, thick crowds marched down a central avenue in midmorning, defying official warnings of a harsh crackdown on protests as they chanted death to khamenei, referring to iran s supreme leader, ayatollah ali khamenei, who has expressed growing intolerance for political dissent in the country."

6302010001,Iran,630,2010,MENA,1,1,11,2,2010,11,2,2010,0,several cities,,1000,anti regime,"political behavior, process",,,,shootings,,,,,,,"the times london , february 12, 2010 friday, news pg. 39 ,many gathered to protest, but gov forces violently suppressed them"

6302010002,Iran,630,2010,MENA,1,2,12,6,2010,12,6,2010,0,Tehran,,50,anti regime,"political behavior, process",,,,arrests,,,,,"1 the washington post, june 13, 2010 sunday, a section pg. a10 2 the new york times, june 13, 2010 sunday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 18 ",anniversary of ahmadinejad s disputed election

6302010003,Iran,630,2010,MENA,1,3,7,12,2010,7,12,2010,0,Tehran,,50,students, anti regime"","political behavior, process"",,,arrests,,,,,"the times london , december 8, 2010 wednesday, news" pg. 35 ",dozens arrested

6302011001,Iran,630,2011,MENA,1,1,14,2,2011,14,2,2011,1,Tehran,,10000,green movement,removal of politician,,,crowd dispersal,shootings,arrests,killings,,,iran opposition returns to streets, energized by egypt" the green movement showed signs of revitalization monday as tens of thousands of iranians rallied and clashed with police. the christian science monitor, february 14, 2011 monday, 1041 words, scott peterson staff writer this may be the first spark of revolution in iran. if the people don t go home, the regime will have a problem, says menashe amir jerusalem post, february 15, 2011 tuesday, news pg. 1, 1027 words, david horovitz iran s leader derides protests lawmakers urge death for opposition leaders the new york times, february 16, 2011 wednesday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 13, 1011 words, by neil macfarquhar alan cowell contributed reporting from paris, and artin afkhami from washington. ,the green movement mobilize to support the uprisings in tunisia and egypt, but at the end they protest against their own regime"

6302011002,Iran,630,2011,MENA,1,2,20,2,2011,20,2,2011,1,Tehran,,1000s,green movement,police brutality,,,crowd dispersal,arrests,shootings,killings,,,,"protests across tehran are stifled by security forces the new york times, february 21, 2011 monday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 6, 891 words, by liz robbins mark mazzetti contributed reporting from washington. riot police prevent groups from gathering in tehran iran the times london , february 21, 2011 monday, news pg. 7, 233 words, martin fletcher security forces quell protestsat several locations in tehran the washington post, february 21, 2011 monday, a section pg. a08, 828 words, thomas erdbrink ,antigovernment protesters gathered throughout parts of iran on sunday, most concentrated in the capital tehran, to mark the deaths of two men killed during demonstrations last monday. the government mounted a stultifying security presence in the capital, with the police making arrests and using tear gas to try to prevent the unrest from escalating."

6302011003,Iran,630,2011,MENA,1,3,1,3,2011,1,3,2011,1,Mashhad and Tehran,,1000s,protesters,police brutality,,,crowd dispersal,arrests,shootings,,,,,"iranian reformists: security forces clash with opposition supporters. yemen s president blames tel aviv for continuing unrest. ministers resignations leave tunisia on brink of collapse jerusalem post, march 2, 2011 wednesday, news pg. 1, 939 words, oren kessler and reuters clashes at protests over jailed opposition leaders iran the times london , march 2, 2011 wednesday, news pg. 29, 623 words, hugh tomlinson ,iranian security forces fired tear gas and clashed with anti government protesters demonstrating against the treatment of opposition leaders, pro reform websites reported on tuesday. thousands of demonstrators poured into the streets of tehran and other cities, chanting slogans against the government, sahamnews reported."

6302011004,Iran,630,2011,MENA,1,4,12,6,2011,12,6,2011,0,Tehran,,100s,protesters,"political behavior, process",,,crowd dispersal,beatings,arrests,,,,,"troops break up election fraud protests the times london , june 13, 2011 monday, news pg. 26, 413 words, hugh tomlinson ,iranian security forces wielding clubs and electric batons attacked opposition protesters in tehran yesterday to break up demonstrations marking the second anniversary of president ahmadinejad s disputed re election. the day was further marred by the death of a jailed journalist after a ten day hunger strike. opposition groups had called for a silent protest across the capital, to mark the anniversary of mr ahmadinejad s landslide victory in 2009 amid claims of systematic vote rigging. the election was followed by mass protests in tehran and across the country that were suppressed with massive force by government militias. dozens were killed and thousands have been arrested in a continuing crackdown."

6302011005,Iran,630,2011,MENA,1,5,15,12,2011,15,12,2011,0,Tehran,,200,protesters,"price increases, tax policy",,,crowd dispersal,beatings,arrests,,,,,"riot police break up bank crowds amid gold rush in tehran the times london , december 16, 2011 friday, news pg. 44, 515 words, hugh tomlinson ,fighting has broken out in front of iranian banks as tensions rose over the government s handling of the economy amid soaring commodity prices and pressure from international sanctions. fearing a run on the banks, police used batons and teargas to break up a crowd of about 200 gathered outside a bank in tehran on wednesday to buy gold coins being sold at a discount."

6302012001,Iran,630,2012,MENA,1,1,3,10,2012,3,10,2012,1,Tehran,,100s,protesters,"price increases, tax policy",,,,crowd dispersal,beatings,arrests,,,,,"iran s currency: why did the rial tumble so precipitously? us sanctions played a role. however, iranians aren t blaming the us, they re blaming their own government. the christian science monitor, october 4, 2012 thursday, 1172 words, roshanak taghavi correspondent meridor: now is the time to increase international pressure on iran. protesters in tehran clash with riot police over plunge in rial jerusalem post, october 4, 2012 thursday, news pg. 1, 1057 words, tova lazaro and reuters anger erupts in tehran as currency plunges the new york times, october 4, 2012 thursday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 6, 1224 words, by thomas erdbrink and rick gladstone thomas erdbrink reported from tehran, and rick gladstone from new york. ramtin rastin contributed reporting from tehran. ,yesterday protests broke out in tehran s grand bazaar, one of the country s most important financial hubs, after dozens of people started chanting slogans around the area housing gold merchants, asking store owners to close their stores. while some shops in that section of the bazaar closed down as a show of sympathy with demonstrators, many closed for fear of looters, according to a family of gold merchants. protests also broke out yesterday on the blocks surrounding the area, and demonstrators were aggressively pushed back by riot police with tear gas, witnesses said. iran s semi official fars news agency, citing iran s judiciary, said security forces arrested 16 illegal street money traders and speculators."

6302013001,Iran,630,2013,MENA,1,1,28,9,2013,28,9,2013,0,Tehran,,100,conservative hardliners,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,,,"rouhani goes home to both cheers and protests jerusalem post, september 29, 2013 sunday, news pg. 2, 656 words, jerusalem post staff and reuters iranians welcome president with protest the new york times, september 29, 2013 sunday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 12, 968 words, by thomas erdbrink ,iranian president hassan rouhani was met with a mixed reception on saturday upon his return to tehran from the un general assembly in new york. hundreds of iranians cheered rouhani on his return from new york after his historic phone call with us president barack obama, but a smaller number of hardliners shouted death to america and threw eggs and shoes at his official car leaving the airport."

6302013002,Iran,630,2013,MENA,1,2,4,11,2013,4,11,2013,0,Tehran,,10000,conservative hardliners,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,"in annual tehran rally, a warning for rouhani the washington post, november 5, 2013 tuesday, a section pg. a08, 439 words, ali akbar dareini ,in tehran s largest anti u.s. rally in years, tens of thousands of demonstrators joined monday in chants of death to america as hard liners directed a major show of resolve against president hassan rouhani s outreach to washington more than a generation after crowds on the same streets stormed and occupied the u.s. embassy. such america bashing protests occur every year outside the former embassy compound to mark the anniversary of the 1979 takeover after the islamic revolution. but the latest demonstration had a dual purpose of sending the boldest warning yet to rouhani s government over whether it can expand dialogue with the united states or offer the concessions needed to settle the nuclear impasse with the west."

6302014001,Iran,630,2014,MENA,1,1,20,4,2014,20,4,2014,0,Tehran,100-999,150,inmates family members,police brutality,,,accommodation,,,,,"1 iran disputes reports of violent crackdown in prison s political detainee block. the new york times, april 22, 2014 tuesday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 6, by rick gladstone thomas erdbrink contributed reporting from tehran 2 iranian prison chief removed after reports of attack on inmates. the new york times, april 24, 2014 thursday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 7, by thomas erdbrink 3 iran s shaved head protests: is political unrest growing under rouhani? injustice, unemployment, high prices might revive democracy movement. jerusalem post, april 27, 2014 sunday, news pg. 3, benjamin weinthal ,exact number of participants is not provided, but judges to be 50 based on the account of at least 32 prisoners being injured and placed in solitary & that a member of parliament was willing to participate. 1 amnesty international, the london based human rights group that has frequently criticized iran s judicial system, said there were reports that at least 32 detainees had been placed in solitary confinement because of the incident. accounts of a violent clash were so widespread that on sunday, relatives of the inmates demonstrated outside the parliament building to protest, the iranian students news agency reported. such demonstrations are highly unusual in the capital, where any unauthorized political demonstrations are quickly suppressed. the news agency said a moderate member of parliament, ali mottahari, attended the demonstration... 2 the head of iran s judiciary removed the country s highest prison official on wednesday, after what human rights advocates said was a violent raid on political prisoners in tehran s largest prison facility... 3 the wall street journal reported on friday that a rare public protest took place with roughly 150 people in front of president hassan rouhani s office..."

6302014002,Iran,630,2014,MENA,1,2,13,6,2014,13,6,2014,0,Tehran,50-99,50,women,social restrictions,,,,,accomodation,,,,,,,"iran jailing offers hint of liberty under rouhani. the new york times, october 12, 2014 sunday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 13, by thomas erdbrink ,weeks later, a group of around 50 women gathered in front of the azadi volleyball stadium in south tehran demanding to be allowed inside. women are barred from soccer stadiums, supposedly because of the foul language. but until a year ago they were allowed to attend men s volleyball matches, which are very popular in iran. last year, for reasons that have never been made clear, they were barred. the rouhani government objected to the ban, and even sent a senior official in women s affairs, sara ghasempour, to the june protest, the islamic student news agency reported. but nothing changed. a week later, on june 20, iran played italy, and ms. ghavami again joined the protest..."

6302014003,Iran,630,2014,MENA,1,3,22,10,2014,22,10,2014,0,Isfahan,2000-4999,>2000,iranians,"political behavior, process",social restrictions,removal of politician,,accomodation,,,,,,,"thousands in iran protest acid attacks on women. the new york times, october 23, 2014 thursday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 6, by thomas erdbrink ,thousands of iranians took to the streets of the historic city of isfahan on wednesday to protest several acid attacks on women. the attacks had coincided with the passage of a law designed to protect those who correct people deemed to be acting in an un islamic way...the protesters more than 2,000, according to the semiofficial news agency fars gathered in front of the local judiciary office and shouted slogans against extremists whom the protesters likened to supporters of islamic state militants. they also called for the city s friday prayer leader and the prosecutor to step down, witnesses said...president hassan rouhani strongly criticized the new law on wednesday, saying that he feared it would divide society because, as many observers have pointed out, in reality it offers the country s small but influential faction of hard liners more power...his words indicated that his government would take steps to oppose the law..."

6302014004,Iran,630,2014,MENA,1,4,23,10,2014,23,10,2014,0,Isfahan,50-99,>50,iranians,"political behavior, process",social restrictions,,,ignore,,,,,,,"iranian women blinded with acid for breaking hijab code. the times london , october 24, 2014 friday, news pg. 45, hugh tomlinson ,protesters took to the streets for the second consecutive day yesterday as citizens demanded tougher action from the authorities. at least eight women have been disfigured and even blinded by men on motorbikes who threw acid through car windows...residents blame a fresh effort to impose strict islamic dress codes on women, which they claim has been whipped up by hardline politicians and clerics...the authorities deny inciting violence but residents have been outraged by the sluggish response to the attacks..."

6302015001,Iran,630,2015,MENA,1,1,21,3,2015,21,3,2015,0,Shiraz,1000-1999,>1000,animal rights activists,"political behavior, process",,,,accomodation,,,,,,,"under more relaxed rule, iranians cautiously reclaim public life. the new york times, october 6, 2015 tuesday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 4, by thomas erdbrink ,exact date is unclear. in the spring, more than a thousand animal rights activists gathered at the ministry of environment, protesting the killing of stray dogs in the city of shiraz. the protest was fueled by social media, heavily amplified by the introduction of 3g mobile internet. the killing stopped..."

6302015002,Iran,630,2015,MENA,1,2,7,4,2015,7,4,2015,0,Tehran,100-999,150,anti nuclear deal hard liners,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,,,"iran s leaders fall into line behind accord. the new york times, april 8, 2015 wednesday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 1, by thomas erdbrink ,tuesday morning in front of the parliament building, holding up placards and shouting slogans against the nuclear framework agreed to last week in lausanne, switzerland, the iranian interior ministry condemned the demonstration as illegal, because the protesters had failed to obtain a permit...outside were the 150 or so hard line demonstrators..."

6302015003,Iran,630,2015,MENA,1,3,7,5,2015,10,5,2015,1,"Mahabad, Sardasht, Mariwan",100-999,100s,kurds,"political behavior, process",,,,crowd dispersal,shootings,killings,arrests,,,,,"1 kurdish city in iran erupts after death of a woman. the new york times, may 8, 2015 friday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 10, by thomas erdbrink 2 maid s death sparks worst iranian riots for six years. the times london , may 11, 2015 monday, news pg. 35, hugh tomlinson 3 iranian security agents are all over kurdish areas, kurd party leader tells post . jerusalem post, may 14, 2015 thursday, news pg. 8, ariel ben solomon 4 a tremor is felt in iranian kurdistan. jerusalem post, may 15, 2015 friday, features pg. 14, jonathan spyer ,1 furious over the unexplained death of a chambermaid, ethnic kurds in an iranian provincial capital rioted on thursday, apparently setting the fire that roared through the hotel where she had worked. police officers used tear gas to disperse the crowds...images were posted on twitter of flames roaring throughout the hotel s five floors. the presence of hundreds of men outside the hotel, some with raised fists, seemed to indicate that the fire had been set by protesters...had read news on the internet saying that ms. khosravani had been trying to escape an iranian official who was threatening to rape her. according to those reports, the official had the help of the hotel s owner, who had been promised a fifth star for helping arrange the official s stay there...

2 the mysterious death of a hotel chambermaid in iran s restive kurdish region has sparked anti government riots and a police crackdown in some of the most violent unrest in the country for years. protesters in the northwestern city of mahabad hurled stones at the security forces and set fire to the hotel where farinaz khosravani, 25, plunged to her death from a balcony last week. allegations that the maid was fleeing the sexual advances of a state intelligence officer brought 5,000 people on to the streets, according to witnesses. riot police responded with tear gas, birdshot and baton charges that left dozens wounded. reports that two people had been killed could not be confirmed but residents claimed that up to 100 people had been arrested... the riot police provoked the violence by attacking the protesters and beating them up. as the police became more violent, the response became more extreme. rioting began last week and continued into the weekend as news of ms khosravani s death spread. riot police had the city under control yesterday, residents said, though sporadic clashes continued...ms khosravani s death has crystallised anger in the majority kurdish city at discrimination by the national government in tehran. mahabad is the provincial capital of iranian kurdistan and the region harbours a strong separatist movement. some residents pointed to a deeper schism in society, however. this is not just a kurdish issue. throughout the country there is suspicion of the government, kaweh said. there is one rule for the authorities and another for the people. if an official goes to jail he is out in a day while peaceful protesters are killed or locked up for years. ...

3 three protesters had been killed and dozens injured... 4

the protests in support of mahabad spread only to a few other cities, like sardasht and mariwan. nevertheless, he also asserted that the protests were an indicator of vast anti regime sentiments among iran s kurdish population..."

6302015004,Iran,630,2015,MENA,1,4,30,6,2015,30,6,2015,0,Tehran,100-999,200,anti nuclear deal hard liners,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,,,"iran s hard liners overshadow invisible people who want deal. the new york times, july 1, 2015 wednesday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 4, by thomas erdbrink ,in the little shade provided by tehran s freedom tower, a group of about 200 iranian hard liners...they called for a good nuclear deal in the negotiations this week in vienna, meaning one with few, or preferably no, iranian compromises"

6302016001,Iran,630,2016,MENA,1,1,2,1,2016,2,1,2016,0,"Evin Prison, Tehran",50-99,around 50,rights activists,"political behavior, process",,,,accomodation,,,,,"1. iranian activist ends hunger strike as wife is released from prison, the new york times , january 3, 2017 tuesday 00:00 est, world middleeast, 552 words, rick gladstone 2. the hunger strike, the protest tactic of gandhi, is vexing iran s penal overseers, the new york times , january 9, 2017 monday 00:00 est, world middleeast, 1429 words, thomas erdbrink. ,an imprisoned political activist in iran who began a hunger strike more than two months ago to protest the incarceration of his wife halted the fast on tuesday when the judicial authorities released her at least temporarily, rights groups and iranian news media reported. the showdown between the authorities and the activist, arash sadeghi, who was sentenced in 2015 to at least 15 years for acts deemed seditious, including spreading propaganda, appeared to be a rare instance of compromise by a government not known for leniency. the release of mr. sadeghi s wife, golrokh ebrahimi iraei, came a day after an equally rare demonstration on the couple s behalf by protesters in front of tehran s evin prison, where both have been held. videos of the demonstration were spread on twitter. despite the threat of arrest for participating in unauthorized demonstrations, mr. ghaemi said, the protest on monday outside evin prison suggested that more iranians are now willing to take such risks. it tells you the demand for basic freedoms has not gone away, he said. last monday, a group of around 50 activists, ignoring the dangers that come with organizing unauthorized protests in iran, gathered in front of tehran s evin prison, where mr. sadeghi and mrs. ebrahimi iraei are being held, and called for their release. a day later, iran s judiciary capitulated to a crucial demand of mr. sadeghi. abbas jafari dolatabadi, tehran s prosecutor, announced that mrs. ebrahimi iraei would be given a leave from prison. mr. sadeghi ended his fast, after 72 days."

6302016002,Iran,630,2016,MENA,1,2,2,1,2016,4,1,2016,1,"Saudi Embassy, Tehran",5000-10000,Thousands,shiites,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,"soaring tensions in the mideast, the washington post, january 5, 2016 tuesday, a section pg. a01, 963 words, liz sly 2. the times london , january 5, 2016 tuesday, news pg. 32,33, 1115 words, catherine philp. ,the kingdom s sunni allies quickly joined it in severing or downgrading diplomatic ties with the iranians after the saudi embassy in tehran was attacked in protest at the execution of sheikh nimr al nimr. thousands took to the streets of tehran yesterday for a third day of protests, with some voicing anger that iran had not moved first to break off relations. there were also fresh protests in cities across iraq, with demands that it sever diplomatic ties with the saudis. young men burnt british and us flags at rallies called by muqtada al sadr, a firebrand shia cleric. iraq s shiites also have strongly condemned nimr s execution, and thousands of people staged demonstrations monday calling on the government to close the newly reopened saudi embassy."

6302016003,Iran,630,2016,MENA,1,3,30,1,2016,30,1,2016,0,Tehran,100-999,dozens arrested,students,land farm issue,,,,arrests,beatings,,,,,"new iran battle brews over foreign oil titans, the new york times, february 1, 2016 monday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 7, 868 words, by thomas erdbrink ,on saturday, hard line students gathered in front of the oil ministry in tehran to protest the terms of a proposed contract that would permit foreign oil companies to help revitalize outdated wells and infrastructure. the proposal amounted to the plundering of national wealth, the students shouted. dozens of protesters were arrested by riot police officers who severely beat up female students, the semiofficial fars news agency reported. the protests in front of the oil ministry appear to have originated partly over anger at president rouhani s trip last week to italy and france, where he signed a memorandum of understanding with the french firm total to export up to 200,000 barrels of iranian crude oil a day, the first deal following the lifting of the sanctions."

6302016004,Iran,630,2016,MENA,1,4,9,9,2016,9,9,2016,0,Tehran,2000-4999,thousands,religious activists,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,"iranians take to the streets, the times london , september 10, 2016 saturday, national edition, 68 words. ,iranians take to the streets over haj ban. tehran thousands of iranians have staged street protests after being denied the chance to join this year s haj by escalating tensions with saudi arabia. diplomatic ties between iran, a predominantly shia nation, and saudi arabia, the sunni powerhouse, were severed after a stampede at last year s pilgrimage that killed at least 2,426 people, 464 of them iranians. afp"

6302017001,Iran,630,2017,MENA,1,1,10,1,2017,10,1,2017,0,Tehran,>10000,up to two million,mourners,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,"1. as protests flare, iran bids farewell to rafsanjani, the new york times , january 10, 2017 tuesday 00:00 est, world middleeast, 1040 words, thomas erdbrink 2. angry iranians turn on regime at rafsanjani s funeral, the times london , january 11, 2017 wednesday, news pg. 30,31, 631 words, richard spencer ,iranians bade farewell to ayatollah akbar hashemi rafsanjani on tuesday, with the sprawling state funeral veering slightly off script when groups of mourners started shouting opposition slogans. the authorities were forced to raise the volume on the loudspeakers playing lamentation songs after some in the crowds took up cries of oh, hussein, mir hussein, a reference to a former presidential candidate, mir hussein mousavi, who has been under house arrest since 2011. some of the chants were aimed at russia, iran's ally in the syrian conflict. video clips on social media showed mourners shouting death to russia and the russian embassy is the den of espionage, as they passed the embassy's complex in the heart of tehran. people also called for the release of hunger strikers in iranian prisons. state television, broadcasting the funeral live, airbrushed the protests, which were nevertheless allowed to proceed without police intervention up to two million mourners filled the streets of tehran for the funeral of akbar hashemi rafsanjani, iran's former president, in a politically charged outpouring of grief. reformists, who had come to see the once feared revolutionary figurehead as a pragmatic opponent of the regime's hardliners, called for the release of leaders held under house arrest. at one point, groups were heard chanting death to russia, iran's new ally on the frontlines in syria, rather than the traditional death to america. others were filmed shouting: ya hussein, mir hussein, combining a traditional shia cry of mourning for imam hussein, the sect's founding father, with the name of mir hussein mousavi."

6302017002,Iran,630,2017,MENA,1,2,16,2,2017,20,2,2017,0,Ahvaz,100-999,increasingly large gatherings,residents,removal of politician,"political behavior, process",,,ignore,,,,,"1. protests in iran city where brown dust covers all, the new york times, february 20, 2017 monday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 6, 662 words, by thomas erdbrink
2. man killed taking selfie during gulf's freak storms, the times london, february 20, 2017 monday, news pg. 32, 316 words, bel trewe. residents of ahvaz, a city with a majority arab population near the border with iraq, had been protesting for five days in increasingly large gatherings, shown in cellphone video clips shared on social media. the region around ahvaz is a center of oil production in iran, and since economic sanctions were lifted, iran's government has been hoping for foreign investment in the area to update refineries and power stations and fix deepening ecological problems. the cellphone clips show protesters calling for the resignation of the local governor. and as the number of demonstrators grew, the demands started to include a call for top officials from the capital, tehran, to come to ahvaz to see the problems for themselves. demonstrators can also be heard shouting, unemployment, unemployment, another big problem in the region, and urging their countrymen to offer assistance: iranian compatriots, help us, help us. state television, dominated by hard liners, highlighted the protests at first, seemingly to place the moderate government of president hassan rouhani in a difficult position. one local reporter even presented the news wearing a protective mask against air pollution in protest. but as the number of protesters started increasing, the official news media fell silent. on saturday, the local police issued a statement calling on people to refrain from illegal gatherings, warning that they would be confronted if they took part. witnesses reported the presence of riot police officers on the streets of ahvaz. the iranian authorities did not allow a new york times reporter to visit the city. residents struggling in the freak weather conditions held demonstrations calling for government assistance."

6302017003,Iran,630,2017,MENA,1,3,8,5,2017,8,5,2017,1,Tehran,50-99,dozens,miners,lab or wage dispute,,,,,ignore,,,,,,,"public clash in iran pits coal miners vs. president the new york times, may 9, 2017 tuesday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 5, 475 words, by thomas erdbrink ,angry miners grieving the deaths of dozens of co workers trapped after an explosion blocked the convoy of president hassan rouhani over the weekend, an extraordinary display of public anger two weeks before presidential elections. workers from the zemestan yurt coal mine in northern iran, some of whose faces were still black from their failed attempts to rescue at least 35 miners stuck in several shafts since wednesday, blocked the car carrying mr. rouhani on sunday. the incident was shown in video clips posted by the semiofficial fars news agency. some miners could be heard swearing, as another, wearing a miner s helmet and sitting on the roof of the car shouted: make way. this is your president. mr. rouhani faces five opponents in the elections. the main hard line candidates, mayor mohammad bagher ghalibaf of tehran and the head of a religious foundation, ebrahim raisi, a cleric, accuse him of having ruined the economy and not solving unemployment. the accident in the mine was the latest in a string of fires and natural disasters. there was even a tower collapse in the center of tehran. in a separate, edited video circulated by fars, the presidential car is seen from another angle. as other cars in the convoy slowly make their way forward, the black armored car is seen surrounded by miners. several members of the islamic revolutionary guards corps are standing at a distance, as one miner starts banging the hood of the car, and kicking it. seconds later, he can be seen trying to drag down one of the bodyguards hanging from the vehicle. as the presidential vehicle speeds away some miners chase it, throwing stones. in yet another clip, posted by the tasnim news agency, mr. rouhani can be seen standing among miners. one of them complains that they have not been paid for 14 months. i don t even have 10,000 tomans, or around 2.60, to take my child to the doctor, he says."

6302017004,Iran,630,2017,MENA,1,4,9,5,2017,9,5,2017,0,Tehran,2000-4999,thousands,pro testers,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,,,"at a rouhani rally, iran s political ghosts are a galvanizing presence the new york times, may 12, 2017 friday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 8, 910 words, by thomas erdbrink. ,as supporters of iran s president awaited his arrival to fire them up for his may 19 re election bid, the thoughts of many were with two other men under house arrest for years. mousavi, karroubi must be released! the crowd of thousands thundered over and over, a reference to the country s most prominent opposition leaders. hands raised, they drowned out a warm up speaker at the campaign event for the president, hassan rouhani. many wore green wristbands, a political symbol that, not too long ago, could get someone arrested in iran. not these days a concession in the modestly widened latitude permitted for political discourse when iran gears up for elections. during the campaign, which lasts only a few weeks, politics are not only freer, but edgier. the scene at the rouhani campaign rally in tehran on tuesday has been replicated in other cities in recent days. in what appeared to be a warning that they not get out of hand, iran s supreme leader, ayatollah ali khamenei, said on wednesday that anyone who disrupted the elections would get a slap in the face."

6302017005,Iran,630,2017,MENA,1,5,27,8,2017,27,8,2017,0,Tehran,50-99,dozens,protesters,police brutality,,,,,ignore,,,,,,,"shiite mystic is sentenced to death by iranian court the new york times, august 29, 2017 tuesday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 7, 505 words, by thomas erdbrink ,he was first arrested in 2010 but released soon after. in 2011, mr. taheri was arrested again, and has remained in prison ever since. in rejecting his appeal on sunday, a revolutionary court ruled that he was spreading corruption on earth, an islamic ruling often reserved for apostates, political figures and fraudulent businessmen, the semiofficial fars news agency reported. also on sunday, a couple dozen of his followers protested the death sentence in front of one of tehran s revolutionary courts. it is unclear if any of these people were arrested. some months ago, during a similar protest, in front of evin prison in tehran, several were arrested."

6302017006,Iran,630,2017,MENA,1,6,27,12,2017,9,3,2018,0,Tehran national,100-999,dozens,women girlsofrevolutionstreet,social restrictions,,,,,arrests,,,,,,,"1. iran arrests 29 tied to protests against compulsory islamic veil, the new york times, february 3, 2018 saturday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 4, 587 words, by thomas erdbrink and richard p rez pe a 2. iran s handmaid s tale and metoo ethnocentrism, jerusalem post, february 5, 2018 monday, opinion pg. 14, 955 words, seth j. frantzman 3. iranian women s deep discontent, the washington post, february 11, 2018 sunday, editorial copy pg. a22, 538 words, editorial board 4. iranian women daring to doff their headscarves, the washington post, march 9, 2018 friday, a section pg. a14, 1358 words, erin cunningham ,women wearing the islamic headscarf, or hijab, in tehran. protests against compulsory hijab laws picked up pace in iran this week. twenty nine people, most of them women, have been arrested in connection with recent protests in iran against the compulsory islamic veil for women, the police in tehran said on friday, adding that the protesters had been deceived by foreign forces. protests against the requirement that women cover their hair with the islamic veil, or hijab, picked up pace earlier this week in tehran and other cities. witness accounts and social media videos indicate that more than two dozen women have doffed their scarves in public and waved them on sticks, like flags."

6302017007,Iran,630,2017,MENA,1,7,28,12,2017,7,1,2018,1,national,>10000,tens of thousands,youth workers,"price increases, tax policy",labor wage dispute,"political behavior, process",removal of politician,crowd dispersal,beatings,arrests,,,,,"1. thousands take to streets across iran in protest at regime, the times london , december 30, 2017 saturday, news pg. 33, 519 words, hannah lucinda smith 2. after pro government rally in iran, chants for ayatollah s ouster, the new york times, december 31, 2017 sunday, section a column 0 foreign desk pg. 12, 1272 words, by thomas erdbrink 3. kurdish iranian groups support protests for democracy in iran, jerusalem post, january 1, 2018 monday, news pg. 3, 521 words, seth j. frantzman 4. intelligence ministry d g: iran protests show opposition to exporting islamic revolution. demonstrations seem to subside as thousands rally in support of regime jerusalem post, january 7, 2018 sunday, news pg. 1, 456 words, herb keinson ,thousands of people took to the streets of iran for a second day of protests yesterday as anger mounted over the economic crisis. people came out in cities across the country, chanting: the youth are unemployed, the clerics are in limousines. others shouted slogans against president rouhani, a relative moderate and reformer who was elected to a second term earlier this year. the largest protests were in the northeastern city of mashhad, where 52 people were arrested. mobile phone footage shows the security forces beating a crowd of demonstrators with batons in the western city of kermanshah. the governor of mashhad, mohammad rahim norouzian, said that the demonstration was illegal but the police dealt with people with tolerance . he claimed that enemies of the state and counter revolutionaries organised the protests. many iranians are critical of what they see as the hypocrisy of the clerics and the government, which has failed to contain rampant inflation or restrain corruption in financial institutions. the price of eggs has doubled in the past week. many who have put their savings in the country s banks have lost everything to embezzlement. iran s leaders were confronted by unauthorized protests in major cities for the third straight day on saturday, with crowds aiming their anger at the supreme leader, ayatollah ali khamenei, and some demanding that he step down. the demonstrators first took to the streets of mashhad, one of the holiest places in shiite islam, on thursday. by saturday, dozens of people had been arrested and the police had fired tear gas to disperse crowds. on saturday night, the protests turned violent, with at least two demonstrators shot in the western town of dorud, according to a series of videos posted on social media. at least one of the videos was verified by bbc persian. it could not be determined who was responsible for the gunfire. the protests, which erupted over declining economic conditions, corruption and a lack of personal freedoms, presented a serious challenge to the government of president hassan rouhani, who won re election on promises to revitalize the economy. on saturday, the angry crowds turned out on the same day that an annual pro government rally took place in tehran to commemorate counter demonstrations against those who had challenged the re election of mahmoud ahmadinejad as president in 2009. three kurdish parties have called on their supporters to join the demonstrations in iran. many thousands of kurds in iran have been protesting over the last several days, clashing with security forces.

over the weekend video from numerous kurdish towns and cities showed protesters in the streets and scuffles with police. since the iranian protests began on december 28, the kurds have joined other iranians in the streets protesting against the regime. kurds make up around 10 of iran s population and are thought to number between 6 and 8 million people."

6302018001,Iran,630,2018,MENA,1,1,6,1,2018,6,1,2018,0,national,5000-10000,thousands,r egime supporters,"political behavior, process",,,,ignore,,,,,,,"intelligence ministry d g: iran protests show opposition to exporting islamic revolution. demonstrations seem to subside as thousands rally in support of regime jerusalem post, january 7, 2018 sunday, news pg.
1, 456 words, herb keinson ,thousands of government supporters staged rallies across the country for a fourth day on saturday, in a backlash against the protests. more than a week of unrest has left 22 people dead and more than 1,000 arrested, according to iranian officials, in the biggest anti government protests since 2009."

6302018002,Iran,630,2018,MENA,1,2,10,1,2018,10,1,2018,0,Tehran,100-999,hundreds,sufi
s,police brutality,,,,ignore,,,,,,,"protests at tehran jail over missing thousands the times london
, january 11, 2018 thursday, news pg. 31, 274 words, richard spencer ,hundreds of people have protested outside the notorious evin prison in tehran over the fate of relatives arrested in the recent anti regime rallies. mahmoud sadeghi, an iranian reformist mp, said that 3,700 people had been arrested far more than the 1,000 claimed by police. he has also raised the case of sina ghanbari, 23, who died in the holding cells at evin where new arrivals are processed. the authorities say he committed suicide, but mr sadeghi said the death was reminiscent of the killing of three prisoners after the green movement uprising in 2009.
amnesty international claims that five prisoners have died after being arrested in the recent protests. yesterday s demonstration seems to have begun with a protest against the arrest of a group of dervishes, followers of the sufi sect of islam, before growing to include relatives of students detained in the rallies."

6302018003,Iran,630,2018,MENA,1,3,4,3,2018,7,3,2018,0,Ahvaz Tehran national,100-999,100,workers,labor wage dispute,"price increases, tax policy" ,,,ignore,,,,,,,"strikes break the iranian regime jerusalem post, march 7, 2018 wednesday, opinion pg. 16, 447 words, seymur mammadov ,the workers strikes in iran are spreading. they began at the steel mill in the city of ahvaz, and then spread quickly through khuzestan province and later the entire country, including tehran. the main reason for the strikes is unpaid salaries, yet there are other important reasons as well, including the rising prices of basic goods. the relationship between the strikes and the demonstrations that took place in iran in january is undeniably complex. initially, conservative powers, primarily the mighty islamic revolutionary guard corps irgc and the clergy, encouraged strikes and social protests. they wanted to direct the movement and use it to discredit the current president, the liberal reformer hassan rouhani. but then the movement got out of control. along with economic demands, slogans opposed to the islamic republic system began to appear."

6302018004,Iran,630,2018,MENA,1,4,16,5,2018,16,5,2018,0,Kazerun,50-99,50,protesters," political behavior, process",social restrictions,,,crowd dispersal,killings,,,,,,,"recent iran protests part of potential wider unrest jerusalem post may 24, 2018 thursday, length: 646 words byline: seth j. frantzman","protesters in the southern iranian city of kazerun represent wider percolating unrest that has continued in iran since the large protests in december and january. several protesters were reportedly killed on may 16 when police used deadly force to disperse them. video posted online on tuesday showed hundreds of people chanting that they would avenge the dead during renewed protests. the seeds of this week s protests lie in the mass protests that broke out in mashhad last december. they soon spread throughout rural areas and regional centers in iran. reports indicated that outside tehran, they were far larger than the mass protests of 2009. a un security council discussion on the protests on january 5 said that more than 1,000 were reportedly detained and affirmed that protesters had burned government offices, banks and others infrastructure. since then, there have been continued local protests in iran. this has also included women refusing to wear the headscarf that iranian law imposes. usually these take the form of white wednesday protests, named for the women who don white hijabs on wednesdays and sometimes remove them. for instance, activist masih alinejad wrote in march that it was becoming increasingly common to see women walk certain distances in iran unveiled."

6302018005,Iran,630,2018,MENA,1,5,27,5,2018,27,5,2018,0,Tehran,>10000,tens of thousands,protesters,"political behavior, process" ,,,,ignore,,,,,,,"anti regime protests at film star s funeral iran the times london may 29, 2018 tuesday, edition 1, ireland, length: 320 words byline: richard spencer","the funeral of one of iran s most popular actors, who was banned from films after the islamic revolution, turned into a mass protest with thousands of mourners chanting slogans against the regime. the procession for naser malek motiee, who died at the age of 88, was allowed by the authorities but they banned political speeches during the funeral service. mourners shouted quotes from his films with added meaning, such as: caesar! help! they are killing the people. there have been many protests across iran in recent months, particularly over economic hardship as western sanctions continue to bite. even before the funeral on sunday afternoon the regime had warned of a crackdown, saying that the protests were serving american interests. his death on friday from kidney failure was, however, covered on the front pages of iranian newspapers. videos from the funeral posted online showed tens of thousands of people thronging the street behind his coffin and holding up pictures of him as a young man in classic poses from his films, mostly wearing a fedora."

6302018006,Iran,630,2018,MENA,1,6,25,6,2018,26,6,2018,0,national,>10000,thousands,protesters,"price increases, tax policy","political behavior, process",,,,crowd dispersal,arrests,killings,,,,,"1. spiralling prices trigger iran street protests the times london june 26, 2018 tuesday, edition 1, ireland, length: 530 words byline: iran bel trew 2. rouhani calls for unity as strikes spread across iran the times london june 27, 2018 wednesday, edition 1, scotland, length: 816 words byline: iran bel trew","iranian police fired tear gas at protesters outside parliament in tehran after thousands rallied against spiralling prices and the plummeting currency. traders in the capital s grand bazaar staged a rare strike spurred by similar industrial action at two other major markets for mobile phones and consumer electronics. protesters said they were angered by a collapse of the iranian rial on the black market which has driven up prices. it is the largest unrest since mass protests in december. iran has faced mounting economic woes since the united states pulled out of the 2015 nuclear accord between tehran and world powers last month and vowed to renew sanctions. videos posted online showed crowds around tehran demanding that the authorities ease pressures on the poorest, blaming the economic malaise on costly interventions in wars abroad. thousands of iranian troops and militia are embroiled in the war in syria, fighting on behalf of the assad regime. iran is also supporting the houthi rebels in yemen and militias in iraq. outside iran s parliament people chanting let syria think about us were cleared by riot police who fired tear gas into the crowds. at the grand bazaar shop owners said it was pointless opening stores because no one could afford to buy anything. trade is dead. the middle classes are getting poorer. business is not good and nothing is bought or sold, a 35 year shopkeeper told the fars news agency. another said that wholesale goods had gone up three times since the start of the year. everyone is furious. he said the protest was against the high exchange rate, foreign currency fluctuations ... goods being blocked at customs, and the lack of clear criteria for duties. they want the situation on the foreign exchange market to be clarified once and for all, he said. the protests marked the largest unrest since economic rallies in 75 iranian cities and towns in december and january. at least 25 people were killed and nearly 5,000 arrested. demonstrators confronted riot police in the streets of tehran yesterday as protests against soaring prices spread across the country prompting president rouhani to appear on live television to appeal for national unity and accuse the us of waging an economic war against his country. video footage shared online yesterday showed security forces storming the homes of alleged protest ringleaders. abbas jafari dolatabadi, the general prosecutor, said that several people had been arrested on charges of threatening merchants. on monday police fired tear gas at protesters in shopping districts and in front of the parliament building. the crowds gathered again yesterday, burning rubbish bins in a rare challenge to the authority of riot police. the protests are the largest since the start of the year, when at least 25 people died during demonstrations in as many as 70 towns and cities."

6302018007,Iran,630,2018,MENA,1,7,2,8,2018,2,8,2018,0,Tehran Arak Isfahan Karaj Shiraz,100-999,hundreds,protesters,"price increases, tax policy",removal of politician,,,.crowd dispersal,,,,,,,"1. protests pop up across iran, fueled by daily dissatisfaction the new york times august 4, 2018 saturday 17:45 est, length: 1490 words byline: thomas erdbrink 2. protests grip iran as us sanctions return iran the times london august 6, 2018 monday, edition 1, ireland, length: 996 words byline: iran richard", "across iran s heartland, from the sweltering heat of its southern cities to the bustling capital, protesters have taken to the streets with increasing intensity in recent months, much to the satisfaction of the trump administration, which is hoping the civil unrest will put pressure on iranian leaders. some demonstrations about the weak economy, strict islamic rules, water shortages, religious disputes, local grievances have turned deadly. the protesters have shouted harsh slogans against clerical leaders and their policies. the events are broadly shared on social media and on the dozens of persian language satellite channels beaming into the islamic republic. on thursday, protests were held in the cities of arak, isfahan, karaj and shiraz, as people in numbers ranging in the hundreds, perhaps more took to the streets, chanting slogans like death to high prices, but also criticizing top officials. a smaller protest was held in tehran, where some people were arrested, according to videos taken at the scene. in the city of eshtehard, west of the capital, protesters attacked a religious school on thursday, forcing 500 clerics in training to flee, the semiofficial tasnim news agency reported. one man was killed during a protest in the city of karaj, west of tehran. demonstrators in the capital chanted death to the dictator , and there have also been small rallies in shiraz, isfahan and the holy city of qom. the rallies highlighted widespread discontent with the collapse of the rial, which has lost two thirds of its value against the dollar in a year. that has fuelled inflation even before us sanctions resume at midnight tonight. the iranian central bank acknowledged the scale of the crisis it was facing by announcing new currency measures. under the plans, agreed in a session of parliament on saturday and approved by the cabinet yesterday, a list of essential supplies will be drawn up that will be eligible to attract favourable exchange rates for hard currencies. this implies that there will be a fixed rate or other controls on currency trades for non essential items. the sanctions include a ban on the use of us dollars for trade with iran."

6302018008,Iran,630,2018,MENA,1,8,11,12,2018,11,12,2018,0,national,100-999,hundreds,s tudents,"political behavior, process",police brutality,,.,ignore,,,,,,,"iran s student day protests jerusalem post december 16, 2018 sunday, length: 449 words byline: hassan mahmoudi","student day is the anniversary of these murders by iranian police. every year there are demonstrations at many universities organized by students. a large number of students at tehran s amirkabir university of technology held a rally on tuesday morning in solidarity with workers, students and teachers who are currently held behind bars. the students, forming a long chain, were holding a variety of signs and chanting slogans. they shouted: cannons, tanks, guns, they are no longer effective, workers, students, unite, unite, jailed workers, students and teachers must be released, victory is close, and down with this deceptive government. the mullahs regime, deeply concerned over the expanding student protests, and particularly over the number of protesters in this rally, dispatched its repressive and plainclothes agents to the campus to stage an anti rally. scenes posted on the internet show a large number of college students holding their lines as the regime s basij agents fail to encircle or silence them. students on their campus of nooshirvani university in babol, north of iran, also protested the regime s repressive measures. they were holding signs reading:
universities are alive, stop the crackdown against students, and students will not live in shame. students at sahand industrial college in tabriz, northwest iran, also held a protest rally. there, counter protesters chanted, hypocrite, seditionist, congratulations on your unity in order to confront the students massive rally. however, the college students continued their demonstrations and scuffles between the sides occurred at the scene. one student was reportedly injured. at semnan university, northeast of tehran, students gathered in front of the university s main hall and chanted, inflation, high prices, answer rouhani as iranian regime president hassan rouhani was entering the university hall, challenging his promises to improve the country s economic situation."

6302019001,Iran,630,2019,MENA,1,1,15,11,2019,15,11,2019,0,Tehran,5000-10000,thousan ds,protesters,"political behavior, process",removal of politician,,,crowd dispersal,arrests,shootings,killings,,,,,"1. protests incited by gas price hike grip iran the new york times november 16, 2019 saturday 09:52 est. length: 1006 words byline: farnaz fassihi
2. tehran raises fuel prices as much as 200 , and protests erupt the new york times november 16, 2019 saturday, late edition final. length: 947 words byline: by farnaz fassihi and rick gladstone","protests flared across iran for a second day on saturday, with angry crowds calling for the ouster of the regime in unrest incited by a steep increase in officially set gasoline prices but that quickly broadened to include other grievances. at least six people were dead after security forces clashed with protesters, according to persian language news outlets. iran was also experiencing a near total national internet shutdown, according to netblocks, which monitors cybersecurity. we don't want an islamic republic, we don't want it, we don't want it, demonstrators chanted in the middle class tehranpars neighborhood of tehran. calling the protests foreign instigated, tehran's prosecutor warned saturday that security forces would crack down harshly. the protests erupted in dozens of cities after the government decided at midnight friday to cut gasoline subsidies to fund handouts for iran's poor. that added to strains from american economic sanctions and the iranian government's mismanagement of the economy. the protests then broadened to venting anger over other problems such as social repression and corruption. iran disrupted internet and cellphone service and halted phone data reception, apparently trying to deter people from sharing information and organizing protests, according to netblocks. by shutting down the internet, the iranian government isolates protesters from each other and from the rest of the world, said mehdi yahyanejad, the director of netfreedom pioneers, a technology nonprofit, who is an expert on cybersecurity in iran. oppression can then exist in a vacuum without on the ground solidarity or accountability."

6302019002,Iran,630,2019,MENA,1,2,16,11,2019,16,11,2019,1,Tehran national,5000-10000,thousands,protesters,"political behavior, process",removal of politician,,,crowd dispersal,arrests,shootings,killings,,,,,"1. protests incited by gas price hike grip iran the new york times november 16, 2019 saturday 09:52 est. length: 1006 words
byline: farnaz fassihi 2. tehran raises fuel prices as much as 200 , and protests erupt the new york times november 16, 2019 saturday, late edition final. length: 947 words byline: by farnaz fassihi and rick gladstone","protests flared across iran for a second day on saturday, with angry crowds calling for the ouster of the regime in unrest incited by a steep increase in officially set gasoline prices but that quickly broadened to include other grievances. at least six people were dead after security forces clashed with protesters, according to persian language news outlets. iran was also experiencing a near total national internet shutdown, according to netblocks, which monitors cybersecurity. we don't want an islamic republic, we don't want it, we don't want it, demonstrators chanted in the middle class tehranpars neighborhood of tehran. calling the protests foreign instigated, tehran's prosecutor warned saturday that security forces would crack down harshly. the protests erupted in dozens of cities after the government decided at midnight friday to cut gasoline subsidies to fund handouts for iran's poor. that added to strains from american economic sanctions and the iranian government's mismanagement of the economy. the protests then broadened to venting anger over other problems such as social repression and corruption. iran disrupted internet and cellphone service and halted phone data reception, apparently trying to deter people from sharing information and organizing protests, according to netblocks. by shutting down the internet, the iranian government isolates protesters from each other and from the rest of the world, said mehdi yahyanejad, the director of netfreedom pioneers, a technology nonprofit, who is an expert on cybersecurity in iran. oppression can then exist in a vacuum without on the ground solidarity or accountability."

6302019003,Iran,630,2019,MENA,1,3,17,11,2019,17,11,2019,1,Tehran national,5000-10000,thousands,protesters,"political behavior, process",removal of politician,,,crowd dispersal,arrests,shootings,killings,,,,,"iran s supreme leader warns demonstrators, backs increase in gas prices the washington post november 18, 2019 monday, regional edition. length: 1041 words byline: erin cunningham","in a televised address, ayatollah ali khamenei said he supports the measure to push up gasoline prices and ration supplies, a move designed to raise funds for cash handouts to the poor. the abrupt decision, announced friday, sparked demonstrations in about two dozen locations across the country as residents already grappling with soaring inflation called on the government to reverse the hike. in towns and cities across iran, drivers abandoned vehicles on highways and protesters blocked roads and set tires and buildings alight. some demonstrators clashed with baton wielding security forces, officials said, and at least one protester and a police officer were killed. sporadic demonstrations continued in multiple cities sunday, according to residents and videos posted on social media. a demonstrator in the capital reached by phone said protesters continued to confront police on the streets of central tehran. other protests were reported in shiraz, tabriz, kermanshah and sanandaj. in the northeastern city of mashhad, the streets were deserted early sunday, one resident said. reached by telephone, he said some businesses had closed to protest the cut to fuel subsidies. both residents spoke on the condition of anonymity because of fears of reprisals from security forces. in isfahan in central iran, merchants in the bazaar shuttered their shops, according to a video posted by the bbc persian service. also sunday, the government ordered a blanket restriction on internet access nationwide, local news agencies reported, quoting an anonymous source in the information and communications technology ministry."

6302019004,Iran,630,2019,MENA,1,4,18,11,2019,18,11,2019,1,Tehran national,5000-10000,thousands,protesters,"political behavior, process",removal of politician,,,crowd dispersal,arrests,shootings,killings,,,,,"iran s iron fist : rights group says more than 100 protesters are dead the new york times november 19, 2019 tuesday 06:25 est. length: 804 words byline: farnaz fassihi","protests against the iranian government erupted for a fifth day across the country on tuesday, as the authorities scrambled to crush the unrest and reports emerged of mounting injuries and deaths. the rights group amnesty international said that as many as 106 protesters in 21 cities had been killed over the course of the protests, in what would be a dramatic increase, if confirmed, from the 12 reported killed by semiofficial iranian news agencies. hundreds of people have been injured over the last week and more than a thousand arrested, according to official iranian news agencies. iran s security forces said protesters had killed two police officers and at least five members of the islamic revolutionary guards corps and the paramilitary force known as the basij. the protests started last friday in response to a sudden increase in gasoline prices, which ignited widespread anger amid an economic crisis that iran s president has called the worst in 40 years. the country is reeling from economic sanctions reimposed by the trump administration after it pulled out of the nuclear deal with iran. the authorities moved swiftly to quash the protests, but they soon evolved into a broader, sometimes violent, movement against the government, flaring in cities around the country. but the unrest has endured, and some iranians have managed to circumvent the internet shutdown and send out video. without providing specifics, amnesty international said that its death toll was based on credible reports and that it had reviewed video and heard from witnesses in iran. the video shows security forces violently dispersing protesters with firearms, tear gas and water cannons, according to the rights group. in various cities, protesters have also attacked, ransacked and set fire to dozens of government buildings, including religious schools and municipal offices. demonstrators have also targeted state run banks, calling them a symbol of their economic grievances and of corruption in the system. on tuesday, many cities remained restive, with schools and university classes suspended and national league soccer matches canceled. parliament s national security committee canceled an emergency meeting tuesday with heads of the intelligence and security agencies it said the security chiefs were occupied restoring order."

6302019005,Iran,630,2019,MENA,1,5,19,11,2019,19,11,2019,1,Tehran national,5000-10000,thousands,protesters,"political behavior, process",removal of politician,,,"crowd dispersal,arrests,shootings,killings,,,"iran s iron fist : rights group says more than 100 protesters are dead the new york times november 19, 2019 tuesday 06:25
est. length: 804 words byline: farnaz fassih,"protests against the iranian government erupted for a fifth day across the country on tuesday, as the authorities scrambled to crush the unrest and reports emerged of mounting injuries and deaths. the rights group amnesty international said that as many as 106 protesters in 21 cities had been killed over the course of the protests, in what would be a dramatic increase, if confirmed, from the 12 reported killed by semiofficial iranian news agencies. hundreds of people have been injured over the last week and more than a thousand arrested, according to official iranian news agencies.
iran s security forces said protesters had killed two police officers and at least five members of the islamic revolutionary guards corps and the paramilitary force known as the basij. the protests started last friday in response to a sudden increase in gasoline prices, which ignited widespread anger amid an economic crisis that iran s president has called the worst in 40 years. the country is reeling from economic sanctions reimposed by the trump administration after it pulled out of the nuclear deal with iran. the authorities moved swiftly to quash the protests, but they soon evolved into a broader, sometimes violent, movement against the government, flaring in cities around the country. but the unrest has endured, and some iranians have managed to circumvent the internet shutdown and send out video. without providing specifics, amnesty international said that its death toll was based on credible reports and that it had reviewed video and heard from witnesses in iran. the video shows security forces violently dispersing protesters with firearms, tear gas and water cannons, according to the rights group. in various cities, protesters have also attacked, ransacked and set fire to dozens of government buildings, including religious schools and municipal offices. demonstrators have also targeted state run banks, calling them a symbol of their economic grievances and of corruption in the system. on tuesday, many cities remained restive, with schools and university classes suspended and national league soccer matches canceled. parliament's national security committee canceled an emergency meeting tuesday with heads of the intelligence and security agencies it said the security chiefs were occupied restoring order."

6302020001,Iran,630,2020,MENA,1,1,11,1,2020,11,1,2020,0,Tehran,5000-10000,thousands ,protesters,"political behavior, process",removal of politician,,,crowd dispersal,,,,,"1. protesters demand iran s leaders quit after military admits it hit jet. trump tells tehran: the world is watching jerusalem post january 13, 2020 monday. length: 862 words byline: parisa hafezi 2. iran protests, taiwan elections, megxit: your monday briefing the new york times january 12, 2020 sunday 18:04 est. length: 1667 words byline: melina delkic","protests erupted across iran for a second day on sunday, piling pressure on the leadership after the military admitted it had mistakenly shot down a ukrainian airliner at a time when tehran had feared us airstrikes. they are lying that our enemy is america. our enemy is right here, a group of protesters chanted outside the amirkabir university of technology in tehran, according to video clips posted on twitter. posts showed other demonstrators outside a second university and a group of protesters marching to tehran s azadi freedom square. videos circulated on social media showed students avoiding trampling on massive american and israel flags placed on the road in front of them. a few people who did walk over the flags were booed by protesters in the area with chants of shame on you. some state affiliated media carried reports of the university protests after saturday s demonstrations sparked by iran s announcement its military had mistakenly brought down the ukrainian plane on wednesday, killing all 176 aboard. tehran residents told reuters that police were out in force in the capital on sunday, as public anger boiled up following days of denials by the military that it was to blame, issued even as canada and the united states said a missile had brought the plane down. riot police fired tear gas at thousands of protesters in the capital on saturday, where many had chanted death to the dictator, directing their anger at the islamic republic s supreme leader ayatollah ali khamenei. apologize and resign, iran s moderate etemad daily wrote in a banner headline on sunday, saying the people s demand was for those responsible for mishandling the plane crisis to quit. the latest upsurge in anger adds to challenges facing the authorities, which launched a bloody crackdown in november to quell protests. the leadership is also struggling to keep the crippled economy afloat under stringent us sanctions."

6302020002,Iran,630,2020,MENA,1,2,12,1,2020,12,1,2020,0,Tehran,5000-10000,thousands ,protesters,"political behavior, process",removal of politician,,,crowd dispersal,,,,,"1. protesters demand iran s leaders quit after military admits it hit jet. trump tells tehran: the world is watching jerusalem post january 13, 2020 monday. length: 862 words byline: parisa hafezi 2. iran protests, taiwan elections, megxit: your monday briefing the new york times january 12, 2020 sunday 18:04 est. length: 1667 words byline: melina delkic","protests erupted across iran for a second day on sunday, piling pressure on the leadership after the military admitted it had mistakenly shot down a ukrainian airliner at a time when tehran had feared us airstrikes. they are lying that our enemy is america. our enemy is right here, a group of protesters chanted outside the amirkabir university of technology in tehran, according to video clips posted on twitter. posts showed other demonstrators outside a second university and a group of protesters marching to tehran s azadi freedom square. videos circulated on social media showed students avoiding trampling on massive american and israel flags placed on the road in front of them. a few people who did walk over the flags were booed by protesters in the area with chants of shame on you. some state affiliated media carried reports of the university protests after saturday s demonstrations sparked by iran s announcement its military had mistakenly brought down the ukrainian plane on wednesday, killing all 176 aboard. tehran residents told reuters that police were out in force in the capital on sunday, as public anger boiled up following days of denials by the military that it was to blame, issued even as canada and the united states said a missile had brought the plane down. riot police fired tear gas at thousands of protesters in the capital on saturday, where many had chanted death to the dictator, directing their anger at the islamic republic s supreme leader ayatollah ali khamenei. apologize and resign, iran s moderate etemad daily wrote in a banner headline on sunday, saying the people s demand was for those responsible for mishandling the plane crisis to quit. the latest upsurge in anger adds to challenges facing the authorities, which launched a bloody crackdown in november to quell protests. the leadership is also struggling to keep the crippled economy afloat under stringent us sanctions."

6302020003,Iran,630,2020,MENA,1,3,13,1,2020,13,1,2020,0,Tehran,5000-10000,thousands ,protesters,"political behavior, process",removal of politician,,,crowd dispersal,shootings,,,,,"1. iran protests rage over downed jet, as lawmakers demand accountability the new york times january 13, 2020 monday 11:23 est. length: 1391 words byline: farnaz fassihi and ben hubbard 2. iran cracks down on protests after ukrainian jet crash the washington post january 14, 2020 tuesday, regional edition. section: style pg. c08 length: 177 words","protesters chanted against iran s clerical rulers for a third day, while several prominent newscasters quit their jobs, apologizing for having broadcast lies. widespread anger at the iranian government for shooting down a passenger plane and then misleading the public about it simmered for a third day on monday, with the police and protesters facing off in at least two cities and increasing demands from lawmakers for accountability. after days of denials, iran acknowledged saturday that it had mistakenly shot down the ukrainian airliner, killing 176 people. a government spokesman, ali rabeei, said monday that iranian officials had not lied to the public when they insisted the plane crashed because of mechanical problems, but were providing the limited information they had. he said that president hassan rouhani had learned that missiles were fired at the plane only on friday, two days after it crashed near the tehran airport. demands for government resignations spread monday from hard liners, who support iran s clerical government and called for officials to step down over the weekend, to members of the more moderate reformist parties, mr. rouhani s base. iranian police and security forces fired ammunition and tear gas to scatter demonstrators protesting the government s initial denial that it had shot down a ukrainian jet, online videos were said to show monday. videos sent to the center for human rights in iran and later verified by the associated press show demonstrators in tehran fleeing as a tear gas canister lands among them. people cough while trying to escape the fumes. another video shows a woman being carried away as those around her cry out that she has been shot in the leg."